

Who RULES India TODAY?

The entire establishment, in key positions, is occupied today by those whose names give you an impression that they are Hindoos, who are betraying Hindoos, but following revelations may indicate that they have converted into Christianity but kept Hindoo names as their Mask

Prologue

Do you remember my 2004 publication Christianity in a different Light—Face behind the Mask in which I had cautioned you that Christianity happens to be a bigger threat than Islam because it works in a subtle ways.

I had argued that an apparent threat could be dealt with but not a stealth onslaught. Now look, it has been only 7 years since then, and Christians are already in command of the Nation.

Again, remember my words, while intellectuals debate and administrators organize, you need a true visionary to build the nation.
